

Weekly Homework

Name _____

FYI:

- The annual One Fair—Science and Social Studies Fair—is scheduled for November 20, 2008. Please select a project and driving question to present in the fair. The project is due November 19, 2008. Your child will receive a 100% test grade in either subject for his/her participation.
- Our next field trip is November 21, 2008. We are going to the Young Chef's Academy where we will make a recipe from start to finish in a real teaching kitchen. The cost of the trip is $15.00.
- My contact information is as follows: Phone (404) 802-8300; email ybanks@atlanta.k12.ga.us; or send a note.
- Upcoming events...
 - One Fair
 - Field trip to Young Chef's Academy
- Thank you for all of your support in everything that you do. You are demonstrating to your child the value and priority of his/her education.

Mrs. Banks' Homework Sheet

November 10-14, 2008

ALL HOMEWORK IS DUE ON FRIDAY.**

Subject	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
Reading/ Writing	Please note Students are to read either a story, chapter book or textbook for 10 minutes every night. (read to someone, read to self, someone read to me)	Take home book attached Reading log	Book report—create a bookmark that shows the title, author and favorite scene in your story Reading log	Book report--create a bookmark that shows the title, author and favorite scene in your story Reading log
Language Arts	Write spelling words five times each	Vocabulary cards	Write five sentences or a story using this week's spelling words.	Study for spelling/test tomorrow
Math	Practice sheets Problem Solving	Practice sheets Problem Solving	Practice sheets Problem Solving	Practice sheets Problem Solving
Social Studies	Work on One Fair projects! Due Friday.
Science	Work on One Fair projects! Due Friday.

Spelling words: money, most, open, part, ran, tell, warm

Vocabulary words: vibration, volume, pitch, sound

Write the Spelling/ Sight words

Five Times each

another

car

don't fell

hand

hard
